
GERARDO CODES CALATRAVA

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE AND BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

Director of Scottish Power Limited

Type: Non-Independent, Non-Executive Director

Date of Appointment: 11 December 2019

Current professional activities and positions

He is currently responsible for the Business and Coordination Legal Services Division of Iberdrola, S.A., proprietary Director and Member of the Board of Directors of Iberdrola Energía Internacional, S.A.U. and its Audit and Compliance Committee.

Personal profile and academic training

State Attorney on leave of absence. He received his law degree from the Pontificia de Comillas University (ICADE), with a diploma as Business Legal Counsel.

Noteworthy experience in the energy and industrial engineering sector

Upon joining Iberdrola in February 2011, he was head of the Litigation -Taxation Legal Services. Prior to his current appointment as head of the Business and Coordination Legal Services Division, he has also led the Corporate and Control Legal Services and the Regulation and Corporation Affairs Legal Services Division

He has previously been member of the board of Directors of Gamesa, S.A., Iberdrola Ingeniería y Construcción, S.A. and Iberdrola Inmobiliaria, S.A. He has also served as secretary of the Board of Director of Iberdrola Inmobiliaria, S.A., Iberdrola Ingeniería y Construcción, S.A. y Torre Iberdrola, AIE.

Noteworthy experience in other industries

From 2005 until 2007 he was State Attorney in Lleida and Barcelona, and since 2007, in Valencia, where he held the following positions: coordinator of the Contentious-Administrative Courts, coordinator of the Legal Aid Agreement between the State General Legal Profession and the Centre for Rare Disease Biomedical Research Network and Deputy Secretary of the Regional Economic-Administrative Tribunal of Valencia.

Other information

He has been lecturer of Administrative Law at the Catholic University of Valencia.