
SIR TOM FARMER CVO CBE KCSG

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE FOR HIS ROLE IN THE BOARD OF SCOTTISH POWER LIMITED

Independent Non-executive Director of Scottish Power Limited since January 2009

Sir Tom Farmer founded Kwik-Fit in 1971 and grew the business to become the largest Independent automotive replacement parts business in the world. Following the sale to Ford for £1 billion in 1999, Sir Tom resigned from the business and now has a number of business interests which include property development and investments in new business start-ups.

He was previously Chairman of The Trustees of The Duke of Edinburgh's Award and a Trustee of Scottish Business Achievement Award Trust.

His present appointments are, Honorary President - Young Enterprise Scotland and Honorary President of the Entrepreneurial Exchange, Chancellor of Queen Margaret University and Deputy Lieutenant of the City of Edinburgh.